

SIXTH FORM

Wider Reading Lists

The following booklet contains a selection of different texts to read and enjoy in a range of different subjects. This is not a comprehensive list, nor do we suggest that you should read all of them; however, you should experiment and try some to see what grabs you.

Your wider reading should be in an area you enjoy and wish to pursue – but until you start reading you might not know what that is!

Books in bold type are available to borrow from the school library.
