Wikipedia has an overview of all the British Prime Ministers in the 20th Century. Worth reading about these three <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Winston Churchill</li><li>· Harold Wilson</li><li>· Margaret Thatcher</li></ul> Read this: Animal Farm' by George Orwell is an allegory of the Russian Revolution and how it becomes corrupted. If you don't have a copy there is a classic animated film version on youtube. You can also read an in-depth analysis of the novel on Wikipedia.	A recent BBC documentary series 'Empire of the theat Tsar' with Lucy Worsley. I would strongly recommend watching episodes 1 and 2 to find out about the Romanov dynasty who that ruled Russia until the revolution of 1917, how they built the Russian empire, the great power they had and the diverse society that they ruled. Churchill, Blood sweat and Tears." and "History of Modern Britain" https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b00brnr1/andrew-marrs-history-of-modern-britain-1-advance-britannia The Darkest Hour. It is a film on Churchill during WW2. It is free on Netflix and Amazon Prime or you can find clips of this film on you tube "The Iron Lady". It is a film about the Prime Minister Margret Thatcher, worth a look but again there are youtube clips on her so you could just watch a few of them.	Visits to on-line museums, galleries. Making, writing, producing things. Eg https://www.iwm.org.uk/visits/churchill-war-rooms
