

A level Bridging Work: English Literature

All tasks should be completed and handed in to your teacher during your first lesson at the start of the academic year. The highlighted task should take approximately one hour to complete and this should be submitted to your teacher on the A-level induction day in term 6.

GCSE flashback revision	Application of tragedy to an unseen text	A level subject preparation tasks
Revising Tragedy This double lesson will provide you with an outline of the history and structure of tragedy, and help you revise the basic aspects of tragedy in Macbeth. Tragedy is the lens through which you will explore all of your Paper One texts (Othello, Death of a Salesman and Keats' poetry); it is essential to get a basic understanding of some of the key aspects now before you go on to study the 'Introduction to Tragedy Unit' in Term 1 of Y12. 2 hour.	Recognising Tragedy and how it is presented After revising the aspects of tragedy, you are going to read a section of a classic novel and write about the ways in which a tragic figure is presented (or not). 2 hours	New genre exploration This lesson provides you with a brief overview of political protest and a chance to apply your analytical skills to a newspaper article of your choice. 1 hour